NACCED Who is NACCED?

National Association for County
Community and Economic Development

The National Association for County Community and Economic Development (NACCED) is the premier organization empowering local governments to create thriving and sustainable communities.

NACCED builds generational capacity by providing education, resources, advocacy and peer support that strengthens local governments' ability to create sustainable communities and equitable economies, with safe and affordable housing.

What our Members are saying:

"NACCED gives county staff the tools to accomplish the county's mission."

Director, DuPage County, IL

"There is no other organization that understands county needs in affordable housing, community and economic development."

Director, ICF

"NACCED's weekly emails with news, tools and trainings help us enrich our programs and benefit our community!"

Program Manager, City of Vancouver, WA
